Bob

I hope this email finds you well. Things are going pretty well on this end. We were able to stop the receiver from liquidating, the investor base is now in a good position in terms of the overall investments...we now just have wait for the companies to exit. The companies are doing well. Things have now gone dormant from that perspective.

I'm rebuilding, serving as an operating partner with some growth companies. I'm starting a Real Estate fund as well. Eventually, I may rebuild a vc fund, but one step at a time.

Would love to catch up with you if you're around.

Talk soon.

Patrick
